What is included?

The fees will include: -

- Discussing your circumstances in detail and confirming whether the application you wish to make is suitable to make and what other options may be available to you;
- Giving you advice about the requirements of the Immigration Rules and whether you meet the criteria;
- If you do not meet the criteria, whether this can be overcome and how;
- Considering the supporting evidence, you have provided;
- Where necessary, helping you obtain further evidence, including taking statements from any witnesses;
- Preparing your application and submitting it on your behalf;
- Giving you advice about the outcome of the application and any further steps you need to take.

What is not included?

- Attending a Home Office Interview. If the Home Office ask you to attend an interview, we will give you clear advice (and discuss the possibility of attending with you) at the appropriate time. We will also offer you a fixed fee for attending and advising at the interview.
- Where the Home Office refuse your application, advice and assistance in relation to any appeal.
- Disbursements: These are costs relating to your matter that are payable to third parties, such as the following: -
  1. Interpreter or Translator Fees - You may need someone to interpret for you. In such circumstances, we can instruct an interpreter from our approved register, or you can bring a suitably qualified person with you to help.
  2. Independent expert reports, eg: medical experts. These are not required in many cases, and we will let you know as soon as possible if such an expert is necessary for your case.
  3. Home Office Fees for making the application. You will pay to the Home Office directly as part of the application process.
  4. Immigration Health Surcharge Fees. This fee covers your UK Healthcare. You will need to pay this fee directly to the Government in addition to the application fee at the time your application is made.

Key stages involved:

The key stages of your matter include: -

- Meet with you to take your instructions;
- Consider documentation and other evidence you provide;
- Provide advice on the chances of success;
- Prepare the relevant application;
- Meet to discuss the application and obtain your consent to submit the application;

- If further documentation is required by the Home Office, then to request this from you and submit the same;
- Discuss the outcome with you. If an appeal is required, then this will attract additional cost

How long will my application take?

We cannot guarantee how long the Home Office will take to process your application. To read the current processing times, please visit: <https://visa-processingtimes.homeoffice.gov.uk/>

We will normally be able to submit your application within one week of you providing us all the required documentation and information but will let you know at the earliest opportunity if it is likely to take longer than this.

We also have experience of submitting emergency applications and will be able to do submit the same expeditiously but this will incur an additional fee.

Our Immigration Law Team

Anita Khuram

Immigration Solicitor and Head of the Immigration Department

Anita is an experienced Immigration Solicitor, with more than 7 years' experience in dealing with both personal and business immigration matters. Anita has an excellent record in both securing legal status for her clients and for robustly challenging decisions of the Home Office.

Anita comes highly recommended from not only clients, but fellow legal professionals, who have been impressed with her ability to understand the law and use this to obtain successful outcomes.

Mudassir Ali

Paralegal – Immigration Law

Mudassir is an experienced Paralegal, with more than 6 years' experience in Immigration Law.

Mudassir is very experienced in dealing with applications both for 'in country' and 'out of country' residents. He has successfully obtained entry clearance visas and leave to remain for hundreds of clients. He has also successfully challenged the Home Office at the tribunal when a visa or leave to remain has not been initially granted.

Mudassir's reputation is excellent, and this is reflected in the reviews that he has received.
